

Stockbridge Racecourse
{Hampshire}

The Returns - 1879 – 1888

with some notes

by

E C G

What follows are the returns from Stockbridge racecourse from 1879 to 1988 compiled from many sources.

In addition in some years, notes, which have formed part of another commission have been added.

Every effort has been made to form a complete and accurate record, but above all I have tried to build a picture of one of the most beautiful and charming racecourses that graced the Victorian racing scene. Sadly, bigotry forced the closure of the course after the 1898 season. The lease was not renewed for half the running ground and there was simply not enough room for a course on the remainder. The superb Bibury Club Stand, designed by architect and racing judge John Francis Clark survived until the late 1960's when it was burnt down in an appalling act of vandalism. If you would like some 'before and after' pictures please contact me. It is of regret that no interior photographs or descriptions of the stand exist. Of course being a 'private' club, and bearing in mind the times, it is understandable that the press was not invited wholesale into the new stand but it is surprising that a member did not give one of the fourth estate an invitation.

By the time of the Bibury Stand fire the other stands, the Grandstand, built by John Day in 1830, the Jockeys' Stand [and weighing room] and the betting ring stand had been demolished. In the early 1900's the enclosure rails, number board, and sundry other pieces of racecourse paraphernalia were auctioned off; today almost nothing remains. The Bibury Club chose Salisbury as its next course the fourth at which it had raced; other courses being Burford and Cheltenham.

Could Stockbridge and the Bibury Club meetings have survived had they been able to re-lease the land that was lost? My feeling is that it would have seen World War I retaining much of its quality. However the changes in society over the next thirty years would have seen it go the way of Lewes, Lanark and other 'little' courses.

I hope to be around to publish the 1869 — 1878 details, completing a full record of the returns from 'The Hastings' Era' to closure.

My thanks to the underpaid and anonymous camp followers of Victorian Racing – the journalists – who read the races and compiled the returns. And all who, for whatever reason, have taken an interest in the twin meetings in these and other pages.

Opposite the stand the latter challenged, but failed to reach the favourite, who won a pretty race by a neck; Winterbourne was a bad third.

| MacAlpine | Mr C J Curtis | 2 | 8-12 | J Goater | 2 |
| Whirlpool | Lord Folkestone | 2 | 9-5 | Maidment | 3 |

Winner b c by Blue Gown—Lacy Bertram

There was much confusion in the ring as the number-board showed only two runners, Whirlpool and Royal Blue. Within three minutes of the advertised starting time MacAlpine's number was added [see below]. 6/2 and 3/1 were betted on Royal Blue in the supposed match but the returned odds were: 6/4on Royal Blue, 3/1 MacAlpine, 5/1 Whirlpool

The favourite made all the running, and, after displaying temper all the way from the distance when challenged by MacAlpine, won by three-quarters of a length; bad third.

{Morning Post 1 July — It subsequently transpired that Mr Manning {Clerk of the Scales} very properly refused to weigh MacAlpine's jockey so long after the numbers of the other starters had been telegraphed; and it was only by the sanction of Prince Soltykoff and Lord Lascelles having been obtained that Goater was weighed. Since a similar occurrence at Chester during the late Lord Lonsdale's lifetime no event has been so freely commented upon and universally condemned by members of the Jockey Club and all ranks of racing men as the present throughout the remainder of the afternoon. What makes it appear the more inexcusable is the fact that the stewards of the Bibury Club, under whose authority the opening race of the day was run, declined to allow Mr Combe to run Mantlet for the Andover Stakes because the numbers of the starters had been hoisted only two minutes before. How one decision can be reconciled with the other it is difficult to conceive.]

Bibury Club & Stockbridge 1879 - 1888

THE JOHNSTONE PLATE (Handicap) [4:30] of £103, entrance £3. Winners extra. T.Y.C.

THERE IS CONSIDERABLE CONFUSION OVER THIS RACE as it was 'run twice', and the returns differ between the Racing Calendar and contemporary press reports. After the 'first race' had been run Capt Pigott [on Mr Gretton's behalf] lodged an objection, it being that the field, with the exception of Pomerania and Confessor had taken the wrong course. As Mr M'George's evidence on the point differed with that of others, the stewards ordered the race to be run over again. Looking back 130 years it is hard to see how any confusion could have arisen. It is true that with the opening of 'the straight mile' there were two 6 furlong starting points but this race was advertised plainly as T Y C – that is 6 furlongs, and custom and practice will have made plain to M'George where he should have gathered the field. In addition how two horses could have taken the 'right' course is a mystery that, sadly, will never be explained.

In the 'first' race Lunette [5/1] won by a neck from the dead heaters Royal Hal [n r] and Pero [9/2]. The also-rans were: Red Wolf [4/1 jf], Pomerania [4/1 jf], Confessor [5/1], Playfair g, Wild Flower f, Detective II

What is certain that even the Racing Calendar was inaccurate on this return. What follows is the newspaper result that seems most trust-worthy; five runners were confirmed by the Morning Post's racing correspondent.

| | | | | | |
|-----------|--------------|---|------|-----------|---|
| Lunette | Mr S Jacobs | 5 | 7-0 | J E Jones | 1 |
| Pomerania | Mr J Gretton | 3 | 7-2 | Greaves | 2 |

Winner b f by Speculum — Produce, 5 yrs, 7at

6/4 Lunette, 3/1 Pero, 4/1 Red Wolf, Pomerania, 9 /1 Confessor.

At flag fall, a second time, Pomerania cut out the work followed by Lunette and Confessor past half way where Lunette went on and won easily by three-quarters of a length;the same between second and third.

Winner b c by Truant—Breada

2/1 School Boy, 7/2 Scur Vullin, 4/1 Mr Dodd, 9/2 Skipetar, 10/1 Elfe.

The start was delayed by the fractiousness of Scur Vullin, and when the flag fell Chevalier d'Este cut out the work at a good pace, followed by Mr Dodd, Scur Vullin, Elfe, Schoolboy, and Skipetar, in which order they ran to half way up the hill, when Schoolboy headed Elfe, and Chevalier d'Este having, his making pace task accomplished, was headed by Mr Dodd. After entering the straight Scur Vullin pulled his way to the front, and he was attended by Mr Dodd and Elfe until reaching the commencement of the rails, when they were joined by Schoolboy and Skipetar, who came away at the stand and ran a pretty race home, which resulted in Schoolboy's favour by a head, with something to spare. A bad third.
